TWO HURT IN ELDORADO OIL WELL BLAST

About Town

And Country
By TIMOTHEUS T.

LIFE IN ELDORADO: (From the Eldorado Daily Journal): The mystery of what has been happening to the parking meters in front of the Burnett lumber yard was solved today.

These meters have given the city council trouble ever since they were installed, by rusting of the mechanism, and the manufacturers had advised the council they believed someone was putting acid in them.

This morning the meters were removed and it was discovered that gas was escaping from the metal posts and causing the rust. Four of the six posts produced a gas flame when lighted. However, the flames were extinguished and it is planned to fill the pipe with concrete.

Where the gas is coming from is not known.

LIFE IN HARRISBURG: Of Timmo has received a letter from a 16-year-old boy frankly is worried about the future here. The problem of giving employment to our citizens is what worries him the most.

The young writer definitely does not relish the idea of going elsewhere to work and can see no alternative.

"What does a home do for anyone who has to leave it behind him?" he asks, and continues:

"What can a young boy or girl do after high school here in Harrisburg? . . . They leave home to find work or else just stand on street corners and loaf. Would the families and boys and girls like to be back here in Harrisburg with friends they grew up with? I am sure they would. But can they? No."

This 16-year-old urges a greater concentration of effort by our community in getting something done here that will ease the unemployment situation and give hope to many getting out of high school.

LIFE ELSEWHERE: The boss stepped into the stock room, and stopped short. There was a young man leaning against a packing case, absolutely idle. Such a thing was unheard of in a place of business like this.

"How much do you make a week?" asked the boss.

"Thirty dollars," was the reply.

"Here's your thirty," the boss shouted. "Now get out and don't come back!"

As the young man put the money in his pocket and made a hasty exit, the boss turned to the clerk and asked:

"How long has that boy been with us?"

"Oh, about fifteen minutes. He just dropped in to deliver a message."

LIFE IN VERMONT: Shortly after one Vermonters had had a telephone installed, a neighbor dropped in and found him immersed in the business of filling out a form from a mail order catalog. The telephone was ringing persistently, but the man took no heed whatever.

"Alex," the caller ventured, "ain't that your ring?"

"Eh-yah, 'tis."

"Wal, ain't cha goin' to answer it?"

"William," said the man. "I'm busy, an' I had that thing put in for MY convenience."

Freighter With 33 Aboard Sinks In Heavy Seas

MIAMI, Fla. (UP) — A cement-laden freighter with 33 men aboard went down in heavy seas late Wednesday off the coast of Haiti, the Coast Guard said.

Officials reported that "some or all" of the crew of the Lake Traverse had scrambled into two life boats. The survivors were trying to reach Puerto Paix, Haiti.

The message to the Coast Guard in Miami, about 700 miles northwest of the disaster scene, did not specify whether any of the crew members lost their lives but officials said apparently all were saved.

The Lake Traverse radioed Wednesday afternoon it was taking on water badly and asked for help as soon as possible. But natives got word out several hours later that they saw the Panamanian freighter go down.

Stonefort Legion Installs Officers

Harry L. McCabe is the new commander of K. M. B. Post 400, American Legion, Stonefort.

Powell, unemployment officer; Robert Ozmert, finance officer; Joyce Barger, sergeant-at-arms; H. L. Joyner, trustee of club three year term; C. L. Blackman, park board trustee five year term.

Auto Safety Belt Bill Signed By Gov. Stratton

Requires Equipment On All Cars Sold in State After June, '56

SPRINGFIELD (UP) — Gov. William G. Stratton today signed a bill to require auto manufacturers to design all cars sold in Illinois after June 30, 1956 so that they may be equipped by the owner with safety belts.

The governor also signed 49 other bills and vetoed 10 more as he worked through the more than 1,000 bills sent to him by the 86th General Assembly.

Rep. Ralph Stephenson (R-Rock Island), sponsor of the safety belt bill, described it as "public relations legislation." It will not require the cars to be equipped with the belts at the point of manufacture, but will, he said, "make people aware" of the desirability of safety belts.

Other bills signed:

Create a police training institute at the University of Illinois, with a $30,000 appropriation.

Authorize school boards, where the population is less than 1,000, to use school funds for educational field trips.

Permit voluntary deductions from the pay of municipal employees for the purchase of savings bonds.

Require the offices of county clerks and boards of election commissioners to remain open from the time polls open until all election returns are in.

Require immediate admission to bail of traffic violators arrested in a county other than that in which the violation occurred.

Appropriate $25,000 for the expenses of poor, deaf, blind, crippled and delinquent children at the American Boys' Camp.

Appropriate $16,739,500 contributed by patients to the Department of Public Welfare to be used for a new psychiatric research institute at Chicago.

Substitute the chairmen of the county central committees of the Democratic and Republican parties for two justices of the peace on the county canvassing board.

Require that all counties provisions authorizing establishment of a real estate index number system.

Require county fair officials to notify the Department of Agriculture by April 1 if they are going to participate in the fair and ex- postion fund and to file claims before Aug. 15, instead of Oct. 15.

Require the word "inflammable" to be marked in reflectorized paint on both sides and the rear of trucks carrying more than 55 gallons of flammables.

Require drivers to report accidents to the police within 48 hours or within 48 hours after their release from a hospital.

Bills vetoed would have:

Guaranteed the attorney his fee from any recovery paid the Illinois Public Aid Commission from aid recipients.

Established additional narcotics clinics in Cook County at an expense of $100,000.

Require drivers to report accidents to the police within 48 hours or within 48 hours after their release from a hospital.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY
Thou shalt not steal.—Ex. 20:15.
We cheat ourselves vastly more than we do others whom we treat unfairly and wrongfully. Ancient merchants had a motto, let the buyer beware, but modern merchants have prospered fabulously by changing that rule, because customers once robbed do not return, and return purchases really build fortunes.

Thorns Still Pricking

Editorial — BY BRUCE BLOSSAT

Remember Quemoy and Matsu? Just a few months ago these tiny islands off the mainland Chinese coast seemed to be the center of the universe. But lately they haven't even been making the back pages of the newspaper.

This doesn't mean, however, that they have been forgotten by the statesmen of the free and Communist nations. We can be sure they were very much in the limelight of the recent discussions between top American officials and V. K. Krishna Menon, India's U. N. delegate who conferred not long ago with Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai.

Menon, no friend of the United States in the past, has given indication that he is leaning over backward to qualify as a genuine intermediary in the smoldering dispute over Quemoy, Matsu and Formosa.

India's formal position has long been that Red China is entitled to all these islands. Realistically, however, they understand that the United States has no intention of yielding Formosa, a bastion of its Pacific defense.

So Menon undoubtedly is not urging such an arrangement as part of a proposed Formosan settlement with Peiping. But it would be surprising if he were not suggesting we hand over Quemoy and Matsu without a fight.

As a matter of fact, there has been evidence over the months that this country does not want to risk war to hold the coastal islands within Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist fold.

The problem at all times has been how to let them go without doing great damage to Chiang's regime. At the best it is realized the loss of these islands would cast a dark cloud over his future. At the worst he could be toppled out of power at an early time.

The apparent goal is to get Chiang himself to agree to evacuation of the islands, as he did reluctantly in the case of the Tachens earlier in 1955.

This will not be easy, for Chiang's prestige is now heavily committed in Quemoy and Matsu. The ironic thing is that we are largely responsible for the fact that this is so.

In the first years after Chiang fled to Formosa from the conquered mainland, he had no light defenses on the coastal islands. It was at American insistence that he beefed up the coastal outposts.

One can understand his puzzlement, even his bitterness, that we now wish him to reverse his field and get off the islands. A few years ago he could have done it quietly, without measurable loss of prestige.

We may in the end get our way. But if we do it will be clear to all who know the workings of diplomacy that we have accomplished our objective crudely, with real damage to an ally and to ourselves.

Hey, Moly, Smile Pretty

Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov's trip across America to the U. N. celebration at San Francisco was plainly designed as a sort of Russian good-will tour.

He made a special point of visiting the American section in New York's Metropolitan Museum of Art. Asked what he had liked best in the museum, he said the American works.

Not long after that, he took in a steel mill in Chicago, and then snarled that city's traffic by taking a mile and a half stroll along its Lake Michigan shore.

By this time the next step was almost predictable. Sure enough, he turned up in a 10-gallon hat in Wyoming. Shrewd advice probably kept him from donning Indian feathers. That's U. S. presidential stuff.

The whole journey was brought off so neatly, if somewhat obviously, that one can't help suspect that the Kremlin's equivalent of our Madison Avenue ad boys regard this as one of their larger triumphs.

Only six per cent of all American families with incomes of more than $7,500 a year don't own an automobile. Twenty-six per cent of the families in this group own two or more.

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

by DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON SAYS: Secret White House Meeting Preceded Dixon-Yates Retreat; Senators Had Concrete Evidence Of Wall Street's Intervention In Dixon-Yates; One Wall Street Consultant Left By The Back Door.

WASHINGTON. — The sudden Eisenhower decision to re-examine the dynamite-laden Dixon-Yates contract was preceded by a secret, highly important meeting at the White House.

It took place on the morning before Ike issued his statement indicating the Dixon-Yates retreat, and was attended by Admiral Lewis Strauss, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, with Attorney General Brownell later called in for consultation. What worried them was possible violation of the Criminal Code as charged by Senator Kefauver when he discovered that Adolph Wenzell of the First Boston Corporation, which helped arrange Dixon-Yates financing, had sat in on the super-secret Budget Bureau-Atomic Energy sessions.

Though an alibi had been issued that the First Boston Corporation took no fee for arranging the Dixon-Yates financing, the Criminal Code which Senator Kefauver cited does not rest on the actual taking of money. This was why Brownell was consulted.

Also worrying Admiral Strauss and the President was the fact that Senator Clinton Anderson of New Mexico, chairman of the Joint Atomic Energy committee, had subpoenaed the records of the Atomic Energy Commission showing what visitors had called on Admiral Strauss during the Dixon-Yates talks.

BACK DOOR EXIT
The AEC keeps a careful record of every visitor entering the building. He has to sign his name, tell whom he is going to see, and is assigned an escort to take him to the appropriate office. Furthermore, the record shows what material, brief case, etc. every visitor carries.

And the AEC records subpoenaed by Senator Anderson showed that on January 20 none other than Adolph Wenzell, vice president of First Boston, had called on Chairman Strauss of the Atomic Energy Commission. With him, believe it or not, were Edgar Dixon, partner in the Dixon-Yates combine, plus Paul Miller, also of First Boston.

Furthermore the AEC visitors' record meticulously noted: "Mr. Wenzell left by the back door carrying a large envelope."

In contrast to this official record, in the hands of Democratic senators, the President had stated at his press conference that Mr. Wenzell "was never called in or asked a single thing about the Yates-Dixon contract."

CONFLICTING EVIDENCE
In further contrast to the President's denial, Dick Cook, manager of the Atomic Energy Commission, had admitted under oath on June 8

Officers of Galatia IOOF Lodge were installed Tuesday night, July 5, in a public installation performed by officers of Midway lodge. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and pop were served following the installation.

Frank J. Burk was installed as noble grand and G. B. Duffey, vice grand.

The disappearance of coal burning locomotives from Kentucky railroad lines has raised a problem of Kentucky cinder and concrete block plants, which find it difficult now to obtain sufficient cinders to keep up production. The locomotives were the industry's last good source of cinder supply.

before the SEC that Wenzell attended meetings at the AEC, which considered Dixon-Yates in January.

In addition, Chairman Strauss himself was placed in rather an embarrassing position by the written record of visitors to his own AEC. Because last November, when the Joint Congressional committee was probing the mysterious manner in which the Dixon-Yates contract was hurriedly ok'd by the President despite a 3-to-2 vote against it by the AEC, Congressman Chet Holifield of California asked Strauss:

"Do you know if Mr. Dodge was advised by a consultant who is now employed by any of the Dixon-Yates utility companies?"

"I have no knowledge of any consultants that Mr. Dodge may have had," Strauss replied, "or whether he had any."

Most of this information was in the hands of the eagle-eyed Senator Kefauver, who had summoned Budget Director Hughes, himself the former controller of the National City Bank which helped arrange the insurance financing of Dixon-Yates, to an extraordinary 8 p. m. Senate investigation.

HASTY ALIBI
Faced with all this, the hastily called White House meeting decided to give the President some kind of an out. So it was arranged for General Herbert Vogel, Ike's newly appointed head of the Tennessee Valley Authority to write a letter to the Budget Bureau notifying them that TVA would no longer have to supply power to the city of Memphis, in view of Memphis' own newly proposed city power plant. Therefore, said General Vogel, TVA would not need Dixon-Yates power.

Actually, this was not at all new. Last November, the city of Memphis testified before the SEC, with an AEC representative present that it would not take power from Dixon-Yates.

Again on May 18, Mayor Frank Tobey of Memphis wrote General Vogel that it would not take Dixon-Yates power.

"As for Dixon-Yates," wrote Mayor Tobey, "the position of the city of Memphis has, from the outset, been clear and unequivocal. 'It is inconceivable that Memphis should be dependent upon a source of power which is clearly inconsistent with the continued growth and development of our community.'"

Thus the facts about Memphis had been known for months. However, faced with the inquisitive eye of Senator Kefauver at 8 p. m., Vogel wrote Budget Director Hughes the letter he needed to give Ike a chance to get off the worst political hook he's been on since entering the White House. Ike was summoned off the golf course and the statement was issued at 7 p. m., just in time to call off the Kefauver investigation.

TVA-GO-ROUND
Senators who voted secretly for Dixon-Yates behind closed doors in the Senate Appropriations subcommittee were Democrats Ellender of Louisiana, Robertson of Virginia, and McClellan of Arkansas. Two Republicans who usually vote against the power companies did not do so on this vote. They were Mundt of South Dakota and Thyne of Minnesota who voted for Dixon-Yates.

It was not surprising that Saltonstall of Massachusetts, Smith of Maine, Dworshak of Idaho, and Knowland of California voted for Dixon-Yates, who has gone all out for the Passamaquoddy project in Maine, once ridiculed by the Republicans as a crackpot New Deal project.

Senators who voted against Dixon-Yates were Senators Hill of Alabama, Hayden of Arizona, Russell of Georgia, Kilgore of West Virginia, Magnuson of Washington, all Democrats, and Young of North Dakota, Republican.

"And Little Lambs eat ivy." Maybe these don't though, for they are University of Illinois educated lambs with the English accent that are to be auctioned at the Dixon Springs experiment station according to Register classified ads. The annual sale could combine an outing, for much is happening to rehabilitate and improve the Dixon Springs park these days.

Corduroy Takes On Evening Airs for Summer

Corduroy is a fabric now worn from morning to night the year around. Short coat in wide wale corduroy (left) is worn over short white corduroy evening dress by Ceil Chapman. Dress is pinwaile with bodice. The ensemble look (center) is achieved through full-length coat in off-white corduroy worn over gray cotton tweed dress trimmed in same wale. Ensemble is by Cele Peterson of Tucson. This same designer has also done corduroy shirt and shorts with costume look (right). Pullover is in copper pinwaile with the color repeated in applique on the black shorts. Shirt and shorts are worn with turquoise scarf, wide leather belt and faibabs, hand-made Indian moccasins in same copper tone.

Accept Russian Offer to Pay Half Damages for Plane

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States today accepted Russia's offer to pay half the damages for the Navy patrol plane shot down by Soviet fighters off Alaska June 23.

The offer had been made verbally at San Francisco two weeks ago by Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov in direct talks with Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

This government accepted in a note delivered in Moscow today.

In the note, the United States again insisted that the Navy plane at no time invaded Soviet air territory and that it acted throughout "in a correct and blameless manner."

In accepting Russia's offer, the United States said it was taking into account Soviet expressions of regret and the fact that Russia issued orders to its military authorities to refrain from any future action "of this character."

Seven of the 11 crewmen aboard the Navy plane were injured when the crippled craft crashed and burned on St. Lawrence Island in the Bering Sea after one of its engines had been shot out by the Soviet fighter planes.

The plane did not return the Soviet fire.

Ponder These 10 Steps to Beat the Heat

By H. D. QUIGG
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK (AP) — How to beat the heat—10 convenient steps you are invited to ponder.

1. Dress correctly. Shave your head. Wear shorts. Hair holds heat. So do long pants. Remember what Poor Richard said: Shorn pate and nude knees catch coolth from the breeze.

2. Work correctly. Think! But don't make a move. Moving muscles produce heat. Thinking produces nothing.

3. Be calm. Swallow your anger. Temper breeds heat. You'll eventually develop ulcers from bottling up your temper during the summer, but they'll be a warming influence next winter.

4. Be clever. Insult your wife. For the next two days every word she utters will have icicles hanging from it. If you can keep her talking for a solid hour, you can surround yourself with enough cool words to withstand a week of 90-plus temperature.

5. Don't fight it, join it. Spread some heat yourself. Remember when Dizzy Dean and Pepper Martin built a fire at the Cardinal dugout on St. Louis's hottest day and warmed their hands? So, friends, turn on the heat in your house. The neighbors will notice. And the police will find a cooler for you.

6. Be scientific. Proximity turns the air blue. Blue is a cool color. So start swearing in public. You'll feel the chill around you.

7. Drink properly. Alcohol and sunshine don't mix. Try alcohol and soda or ginger ale.

8. Eat properly. Some foods produce heat. Avoid meat, eggs, cheese, vegetables, fruits, milk, salads, sweets, nuts, fowl and fish. Hire a Chinese cook and have some bird's nest soup.

9. Be resourceful. Hold up an armored car. Nothing beats the heat—and soothes the fevered spirit—like a cool million bucks.

10. Be strong. Don't notice the heat. Pretend it's not there. If you pretend long enough, it'll go away—come October.

Bill to Expand Premature Baby Care is Signed

SPRINGFIELD (AP) — Gov. William G. Stratton Wednesday signed a bill appropriating $750,000 for the premature baby care program.

State Health Director Roland R. Cross said that if the governor signed the bill the care program would be expanded to include at least one more downstate center and give help to three centers in Chicago.

Cross said it has not been determined what downstate hospital will get the new care center. The present three centers are at St. Francis Hospital, Peoria, St. John's Hospital, Springfield, and Christian Welfare, East St. Louis.

The program was started at the Springfield and Peoria hospitals in 1945 and at East St. Louis in 1948.

Big Ridge Class Meets With Mrs. Barbara Miller

Morse and Buchanan Family Reunion Held At Lake Glendale July 4

The Morse and Buchanan family reunion and picnic held July 4 at Lake Glendale brought together the members of these two families from surrounding areas in a most enjoyable outing.

Long distance travelers at the picnic included Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Gorum and their daughter, Mrs. Juanita Pfing, and her daughter, Christine, from Oakland, Calif. They are leaving Sunday to return to California. Mrs. Gorum is the former Mrs. Maud Buchanan and she was reared in this community.

Others present included Mrs. Raymond Jackson, Stonefort, S. B. Bryan Norman, Minnie Owen, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Tison, Jimmie Broadway, Essie Nichols, Mrs. Hestia Morse and son, Larry, Millie Elam, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Jackson, Charles Mallady, Mrs. Lula Mallady, Della Mathis, Tilford Myers, Larry Norman, Rickie Norman, Luther Bryan, Rev. L. F. Norman, Ralph Morse, and Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Tison.

Herman O. Berry Weds Lincoln Woman

Mrs. Mary Jones, Lincoln, Ill., and Herman O. Berry, Harrisburg, were united in marriage June 25 before a group of intimate friends and relatives in the First Baptist church at Lincoln by the Rev. E. H. Eckstein.

Attendants of the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rothwell, Mr. Pulaski, a son-in-law and daughter of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brooks, Stonington, Ill., a son-in-law and daughter of the bridegroom. Following the wedding, a reception was held in the church parlor.

Attending the wedding from Harrisburg were Mrs. Eva Rogers and Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Murphy. The couple now reside at Berry Hill, six miles east of Harrisburg.

Mrs. Capitola Melton and niece, Miss Mona Healy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. G. McGehee, returned home yesterday from a two weeks' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Melton, son and daughter-in-law of Mrs. Melton, in Key West, Fla. Robert is stationed with the U. S. Navy in Key West, and he and his wife have been visiting their parents in Harrisburg. Mrs. Melton and Miss Healy returned with them to Florida, visiting New Orleans on the way. They also visited Miami and other places of interests while in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Foster and daughter, Patsy, have been visiting with their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. John Schutz, of Chicago, where Mrs. Schutz is attending summer school at Northwestern university. While in Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Foster will be guests this week at the Conrad Hilton hotel where he is a delegate from the Saline County Teachers' association at the National Education association meeting. The Fosters will then visit relatives and friends in Bear Lake, Mich., before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Jones returned Wednesday morning from Falls Church, Va., where they visited with their son-in-law and daughter, Major and Mrs. Earl F. McCain and children, Gregory, Debbie, and Steven. They were accompanied on the trip by Mrs. C. M. Jones, mother of Harry Jones, who is now visiting with relatives in Lawrenceville. Major and Mrs. McCain are leaving Washington Aug. 11 for a three-year tour of duty in Puerto Rico.

Bentley Hatfield, a former resident of Harrisburg and a paper carrier for The Daily Register in his youth, is visiting in Harrisburg, Eldorado and Shawneetown. He has operated a dry cleaning establishment in Ontario, Calif., for the past nine years and made a trip to Illinois last week to return his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hatfield, to Carmi. They lived on West Lincoln street in Harrisburg while Bentley was in the grades and high school.

British Jet Crashes in View of Princess Margaret

FARNBOROUGH, England (AP) — One of Britain's supersonic Hawker-Hunter jet fighters crashed on takeoff today in full view of Princess Margaret, who was visiting Farnborough to see a display of Britain's newest and fastest aircraft.

The sleek jet fighter plowed into the earth seconds after roaring off in a mass takeoff with other planes at this experimental, development field.

The princess saw the swept-wing jet fall out of formation and plummet to earth a mile from the end of the runway. The pilot was killed.

Few of the thousands of persons present were aware that the crash had occurred. The announcer on the public address system did not mention it.

But Princess Margaret was standing on the royal dias, overlooking the runway, when the wave of three hunters rocketed into the air, about 100 yards away. She turned to watch as one plane went down and stared at the rising column of smoke.

Then she turned back to watch a tight formation flight of other Hawker-Hunters as the show went on.

Historical Society Meets at Carrier Mills High School

The Saline County Historical society met Tuesday, July 5, at the Carrier Mills Community high school.

A potluck was held at 6:30 p. m. on the lawn with the business meeting held inside the school. Following singing and the announcement of the Ozark Tour, several informal talks were made by members on various interesting incidents in this area of past years. Mrs. Lenore Cole spoke on the first settlers in Lake View who were Taborn and Cole families who settled there prior to 1812. Tobacco was the main crop and trips to the trading post at Old Shawneetown were made in ox wagons. Mr. Howard Street spoke on Battle Ford which was a gathering place for the local militia in early days. Other talks were made by Corlis Carrier and Dr. Ezra Harris and Miss Mildred Harris.

A special commendation was made to Mrs. Ray Altmire and Cecil Rabourn and Howard Street were selected for preparation of the next meeting.

Sen. Russell Questions 'Propriety' Of Compulsory Reserve on Veterans

WASHINGTON — Sen. Richard B. Russell sharply questioned today the "propriety or the equity" of the administration's plan to impose a compulsory reserve obligation on veterans.

Russell, chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, thus took issue with one of the main props of the administration's military reserve program.

The Georgia Democrat raised his challenge to the administration's plan as the committee opened hearings in an attempt to push some reserve plan through the Senate before congressional adjournment.

Three Days Of Hearings The committee scheduled only three days of hearings, with the goal of reporting out a reserve bill for Senate action in 10 days. Lead-off witnesses on the first day of hearings were representatives of educational, scientific, technical and labor groups. The administration is scheduled to present its case for the reserve plan Monday.

Russell's opening statement was an indication that the administration's plan, already approved in modified form by the House, may be in for substantial overhauling in the Senate committee.

Under the administration's plan to strengthen the reserves, service men would have a compulsory reserve training obligation following active duty. Under the House-approved version, it would be a total of five years of active and reserve duty.

To build up a corps of reservists without previous active duty, the administration also proposed—and

Capture Boy, 16, Who Shot Cop In Police Station

CHICAGO — Sixteen-year-old Ronald Charles Dean, who shot his way out of a police station earlier this week, was captured today as he lounged on a Lake Michigan beach.

Police said they were tipped the youth spent most of the day there Wednesday and would return. They converged on the area and found him.

Dean surrendered without a struggle. He was taken to Alexian Brothers Hospital, where his victim identified him.

The wounded man, 57-year-old Patrolman Albert Brown, was critically injured when Dean grabbed the lockup keeper's gun and shot his way to freedom.

Mrs. Bernice Dean, 35, issued a statement earlier begging her son to surrender lest there be more bloodshed.

Mrs. Dean asked newspapers to make her plea to her son public. "I have realized for two years that Ronnie was emotionally upset and in need of psychiatric treatment," she said.

"If he will telephone me, I will meet him and take him to the police. Otherwise, I fear there will be more bloodshed."

Ronald, a juvenile home escapee, had been picked up for rifling automobiles.

Shriners Begin Arriving for Chicago Convention

CHICAGO (UP)—Shriners by the thousands will arrive at Chicago this week for the 1955 national shrine convention.

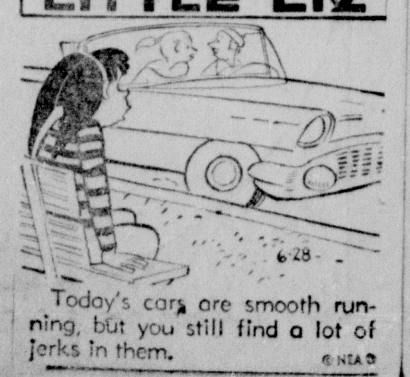

Convention officials expect 90,000 members and their wives for the five-day meeting. Delegates from Montreal to Panama City, New York to Hawaii have served notice they will attend, complete with brass bands, songsters and livestock.

Five special trains will bring two thousand shriners and their families from the Al Malika Temple at Los Angeles. The contingent will include a half-dozen carloads of horses for a mounted patrol and four baggage cars of equipment.

The Shriners will hold two six-hour parades, one by day July 12, and a second at night July 14. Sandwiched between will be a giant "Shrinersama," at Soldier Field, of floating attractions ranging from a $10,000 fireworks display to a return meeting of Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney.

The meeting will be their first reappearance at Soldier Field since the controversial "long count" gave the world heavyweight championship to Tunney 23 years ago.

House Group Approves $1 Hour Minimum Pay

Measure Voted, 21-9; Senate Okays Foreign Aid

By United Press The House Labor committee approved a bill today to boost the federal minimum wage from 73 cents to $1 an hour.

President Eisenhower said at his news conference Wednesday that he thinks the new minimum should be only 90 cents.

But the House group voted 21-9 to match the boost provided in a bill already passed by the Senate.

The Senate increase would go in effect Jan. 1. But the House committee voted to make the boost payable next March 1.

The measure approved by the House committee would not change the number of persons—about 24 million—affected by the federal wage-hour law. A committee member predicted the measure will go to the House floor by the middle of the month.

Other congressional news: Foreign aid: Then Senate approved the final compromise version of the $3,285,800,000 foreign aid authorization bill. The measure was sent to the House for concurrence before being dispatched to the White House for the President's signature.

Transit: Financier Louis E. Wolfson, board chairman of the strike-bound Capital Transit Co., and Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.) traded long-distance accusations. Wolfson accused Morse in a telegram from San Francisco of wasting the taxpayers' money by trying to subpoena him. He said he would report to a subcommittee headed by Morse on Monday. But Morse said the offer is "not acceptable." He said Wolfson had used "seclusive and fugitive" tactics to avoid a subpoena.

New laws: President Eisenhower signed bills appropriating $466,302,415 to run the State and Justice Departments and some other agencies for a year, increasing the penalty for anti-trust violations from $5,000 to $50,000, and fixing a 3 per cent ceiling on the interest rate for farm emergency and disaster loans.

Sponsors: George V. McDavitt, security chief of the Small Business Administration, admitted to senators that he sponsored the immigration of a German girl with whom he was accused of having a "liaison" in Europe.

Dixon-Votes: House-Senate conferees voted to withhold funds for a key transmission line for the Dixon-Yates private power project in the city of Memphis as part of 90 days to build its own power plant.

Social security: A Democratic plan to hike social security taxes and expand benefits confronted the administration with a new challenge in Congress.

The Democratic plan, effective

Jan. 1, would boost from two to 2.5 per cent the Social Security tax paid by both workers and employers on the first $4,200 in annual wages. The tax on self-employed persons would rise from three to 3.75 per cent.

The plan would add 1,100,000 persons to the 7 million already receiving monthly Social Security checks and would bring another 220,000 persons, mostly lawyers and dentists, into the Social Security program for the first time.

The Democratic proposal won its first congressional test Wednesday night when it was approved by the House Ways & Means Committee. President Eisenhower had not asked Congress for the proposed expanded benefits.

The Democratic plan would lower from 65 to 62 the benefit age for widows, working women who retire and wives of covered workers who are now 65 and who retire. It also would allow permanently and totally disabled workers to draw benefits at 50 and at low monthly and physically handicapped children of deceased workers to draw survivor benefits beyond the present cutoff age of 18.

Supporters predicted House approval of the Democratic plan but conceded the Senate, in the rush to adjournment, may not consider it until next year.

Fancy Auto Colors Complicate Police Work

OKLAHOMA CITY — Police dispatchers here are complaining about the color schemes of the new automobiles.

It's getting to the point where a broadcast bulletin for a stolen car sounds like "a loud speaker at a style show," they moan.

Radioman W. G. Nash explained that a car description nowadays is a tongue-twister. "It used to be we could describe a stolen vehicle as black, green, blue or red," he said. "Now it's at least two-tone, and colors range from robin's egg blue and fuchsia to lavender with a beige top."

What makes the situation even worse, said Nash, is that even the owner doesn't always know the color of his car.

Employment Hits Record High, Mitchell Reports

WASHINGTON — Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell disclosed today that employment hit a record high last month. He said also that unemployment is a record "much less" than usual at this time of year.

Mitchell refused to give the June job figures, which are to be released Friday. But he said at a news conference that employment will exceed the previous record high of 63,700,000 set in August, 1953.

Since employment was reported at 62,700,000 in May, Mitchell's statement means the rise between May and June was more than 1,000,000.

A PROCLAMATION BY GOVERNOR WILLIAM G. STRATTON proclaims the month of July as "Third Armored Division" month for the State of Illinois. The proclamation was presented by Major General Leo M. Boyle, State Adjutant General (right) to Brigadier General Robert W. Porter Jr., Deputy Commander of the Third Armored "Spearhead" Division, in ceremonies at Springfield recently. Due to the legislative session Gov. Stratton found it impossible to personally attend the ceremonies. In the proclamation, Gov. Stratton explained the part the young men of Illinois are playing in our national security and requested that the young men of Illinois give notice to the opportunities afforded by the Third Armored Division under "Operation Gyroscope," the army's plan for unit rotation.

Muggy Heat Continues 8th Straight Day

Brings Out Odd Ways to Keep Cool, Water Shortages

By United Press A muggy heat wave kept millions of Americans tugging at their shirt collars and dreaming of a white Christmas for the eighth straight day today.

Temperatures slipped a little in the Northeast and Mid-Atlantic states. But they jumped up to 10 degrees in the Western Plains. From New York to the southern Rockies, the story was the same—at least three more days of 90 plus heat and no definite relief in sight.

The continuing heat across the nation touched off water shortages, odd stratagems to keep cool, and occasional tragedies. In Chicago, a merciful employer issued an order that his employees could wear shorts to work. Irving Rossman set the pace by showing up in a matty pair of Bermuda shorts. About 60 of his 400 employees followed suit, including pretty secretaries who sported white tennis shorts and high heeled shoes.

Widespread Summer Storms But Judge Irwin J. Hasten of Chicago's Women's Court ruled the heat was no excuse for scanty attire. Women were forbidden to appear before him in anything briefier than a skirt.

In New York, James Brown, 35, was injured when a keg of ice slid on him from a refrigerated freight car. Another New York man, trying to escape the heat by sleeping on the roof of a Bowery hotel, was seriously injured when he rolled off and fell 17 feet to the street.

Elsewhere the hot weather created serious water shortages in parts of Michigan and Indiana. At Detroit, where Wednesday's water pumpage was believed to have set a record, a city official said "God help us if we have another day like this."

The heat also cracked with violent summer storms which caused at least one death, flooded roads in Missouri and Iowa, and endangered a loaded street car in New Orleans.

At Richmond, Ind., a golfer was killed by a lightning bolt, and lightning struck twice in the same place at New Albany, Ind., injuring three teenagers and the policeman who arrived later to help them.

Flood Hits Iowa Town

Flood waters forced 15 families from their homes in the Webster City, Iowa, area following an eight-inch downpour and a flood crest on the Boone River. Honet, Mo., was hit by a freak wind-hail-rain storm, which toppled large trees and blocked a highway with water.

In New Orleans, a lightning bolt set fire to a street car loaded with 30 passengers. Conductor Charles Wesson prevented panic by slamming the doors in the face of the onrushing passengers and then making them get out slowly.

High temperatures Wednesday included 102 at Guyton, Okla., the state's top so far this year; 107 at Presidio, Tex.; 91.1 at New York and 90 at Chicago.

Sweltering Americans could meanwhile think about these weather bulletins from around the world: Buenos Aires, Argentina, had its first snowfall in 37 years and Mendoza, Argentina, shivered through its lowest temperatures in 22 years—6 degrees below zero.

It was precisely the same temperature in Hell and Paradise. The Norwegian cities of Hell and Paradise had cool 59-degree readings. And a "heat wave" gripped the North Pole. The temperature was near zero, but the sun was so hot that Soviet scientists in the region went sun-bathing on the ice floes.

In the removal of overburden in strip mining of bituminous coal, giant shovels perform prodigious work. In January, 1955, for instance, a shovel at one Ohio strip mining operation removed 2,037,438 cubic yards of overburden from an area of 44 acres, uncovering more than 335,000 tons of coal.

Hot lye water is an effective insecticide for washing contaminated barns and pens on the farm.

Cardinal Asks Catholics to Heed Peron Plea

BUENOS AIRES — Santiago Luis Cardinal Copello, primate of the Roman Catholic Church in Argentina, urged all Catholics today to heed President Juan D. Peron's plea for peace and harmony.

The Archbishop ordered that a pastoral be read at all Masses in all Roman Catholic churches Sunday signifying support of Peron's plea. He urged members of the church to intensify their prayers and sacrifices in accordance with church tradition during times of trial.

By ordering the pastoral, the Catholic leader, in effect, called for an end to strained relations between the church and the state. This church-state friction has resulted in much violence and arrests since it flared into the open last fall.

Alexander the Great, Julius Caesar, and the Duke of Wellington never were defeated in battle.

Report 331 New Cases of Polio

WASHINGTON — The Public Health Service said today 331 new cases of polio were reported last week, an increase of about 12 per cent over the preceding week.

Last week's cases, however, were about 40 per cent below the 562 new cases in the corresponding week of last year.

The service said 123 of the new cases last week were of the paralytic type of polio.

Since start of the "disease year" early in April, 2,645 polio cases have been reported. The figure is well under the 3,144 cases in the comparable period of 1954.

Carrier Mills, Jukes, Pankey's Win Kiwanis Tilts

By David Nelson
Carrier Mills, downed Athletic House, 14-3; the Jukes beat Wildcats, 11-6, and Pankey's Bakery defeated the Cubs, 18-14, in Kiwanis league games played Wednesday.

J. Cowger gave Athletic House only four hits and three runs, while collecting three safeties himself, as Carrier Mills won, 14-3. The winners scored their 14 runs on 12 safe hits.

Shaner had four for four, Stone had two safeties and Thornton and Moake collected one hit apiece to round out Carrier Mills' hitting attack.

Sanders, the losing pitcher, led the losers at bat with two hits, and Feazel and Dunn had one safe blow each for the Athletic House team.

The Wildcats scored four times in a seventh inning rally, but were finally topped by the Jukes.

The Jukes scored five times in the first, twice in the second, once in the fourth and sixth and twice in the seventh. The Wildcats scored their other two tallies in the fourth.

L. Henshaw, Oglesby, Pickford, Patton and White had one safety each for the losers' only five hits.

Rauh, Pickford and Moore led the Jukes at the plate with two hits each, while Biggs and Maynard had a single each to round out the winners' eight-hit attack.

Undeclared Pankey's scored 14 runs in the fourth to come back and win from the Cubs, 18-14. Hunt, the winning pitcher, gave up 14 runs on only two hits, while collecting four base blows himself.

The Cubs scored three runs in the first, five in the second, two in the third and four in the fourth. Pankey's made their other runs with one in the second and three in the third.

Wunderlich, Smith and Mazeros had three hits, Potter had two and Boone had one for the remainder of the winners' hits.

Gibbons was the losing pitcher. As both teams slated to play at the town park failed to show up a practice game was played which ended in a 6-6 tie.

Friday's Games
1 p. m. — Cokes vs. Sahara Coals, town park; 3 p. m. — Pankey's Bakery vs. Dodgers, town park; Cubs vs. Dairy Brand, Taylor Field.
5 p. m. — Ronnie's vs. Athletic House, town park; Walker's vs. Carrier Mills, Taylor Field.

Suspend Boxer Harold Johnson Who Blacked Out

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Light heavyweight Harold Johnson, who "blacked out" in a May 6 loss to Julio Mederos in Philadelphia, today was under a six-month suspension for action "against the best interests of boxing."

Charging that Johnson was "not in fit condition" to go through with the Mederos bout because he apparently was drugged, the Pennsylvania state Athletic Commission also directed Wednesday night that the boxer's $4,113 purse be forfeited.

The commission ruled that "by reason of having had administered to him barbiturate drugs by a person or persons unknown," Johnson should never have gone into the ring the night of the fight.

Johnson had testified before the commission that he believed an orange given him by an unknown person before the fight may have contained a drug.

The licenses of Johnson's manager, Tommy Loughrey, and his seconds, Louis Gross and Clarence Davidson, also were suspended, and the commission revoked the matchmaking permit of Pete Moran.

The commission's action resulted from hearings into the controversial bout in Philadelphia in which testimony was heard for nine days. Uprior after the fight brought a 90-day boxing ban in Pennsylvania by Gov. George M. Leader. A new state boxing code also is being written.

Jim Wilson, Given 'Bum's Rush by Braves, Blanks Yankees as Orioles Win, 4-0

By United Press
Paul Richards admits his last-place Baltimore Orioles aren't much of a ball club but he insists he has one of the best pitchers in the league in Jim Wilson, a shopworn veteran who got the "bum's rush" in Milwaukee.

The 33-year-old Wilson doesn't pick on the soft touches either. He has compiled his sparkling 2.50 earned run average chiefly against the hardest hitting clubs in the circuit.

Wilson, who pitched a no-hitter for the Braves last year but was unceremoniously turned loose by them the past spring, limited the league-leading New York Yankees to four scattered singles in shutting them out, 4-0, and handing them their fourth straight setback Wednesday night.

"Outside of the no-hitter I pitched against the Phillies last year, no other game gave me as big a kick as this one," he said, after out-pitching Yankee ace Whitey Ford.

Wilson, who claims the Braves gave him the "bum's rush" after he won eight games and lost only two for them last season, helped his own cause Wednesday night when he drove in two of the Orioles' runs with a fourth-inning single. Baltimore scored all its runs in the fourth.

The defeat was a bitter pill for the Yankees who saw their lead shaved to 4 1/2 games when the second place Cleveland Indians beat the Kansas City Athletics, 8-4. Boston's red-hot Red Sox licked the Washington Senators, 7-5, for their 11th victory in 12 games while Detroit defeated Chicago, 5-3.

In the National League, the Brooklyn Dodgers won the first game of a two-night doubleheader, 10-5, but the Pittsburgh Pirates captured the second game, 4-1. St. Louis beat Cincinnati, 6-1, Milwaukee topped Chicago, 5-1, and the New York Giants edged the Philadelphia Phillies, 4-2, in a game terminated in the bottom of the sixth inning by rain.

A six-run rally in the eighth inning, during which Ralph Kiner homered, brought the Indians from behind in their game against the Athletics. Herb Score gained his eighth victory although hit for homers by Bill Wilson and Hector Lopez. Score, who was relieved in the eighth inning, struck out five batters, raising his season strikeout total to 131.

Ted Williams played a key role in the Red Sox triumph with a homer, double and a single as Tom Brewer picked up his sixth victory. Mickey Vernon homered for Washington. The game was scheduled to be the opener of a two-night twin-bill but rain forced postponement of the second game which was re-scheduled for today.

Kaline, Hatfield Homer
Home runs by Al Kaline and Fred Hatfield helped Ned Garver of the Tigers to his first victory since June 7 even though he was nipped for 12 hits. Virgil Trucks was the loser.

Carl Erskine won the opener for Brooklyn even though he was nipped for successive homers by Jerry Lynch, Frank Thomas and Dale Long in the sixth inning. Vern Law limited the Dodgers to nine hits in leading Pittsburgh to victory in the second game.

Rip Repulski's three-run homer was the deciding margin in the Cardinals' win over the Redlegs although St. Louis had to employ four pitchers to halt a ninth-inning rally. Larry Jackson was the winner and Jackie Collum the loser.

Gene Conley hurled a three-hitter in beating the Cubs for his 10th victory. Bob Rush suffering the defeat after yielding seven of Milwaukee's 11 hits.

Don Mueller's two-run homer just before rain halted the game was the winning blow for the Giants. Loser Curt Simmons started himself on the road to defeat in the sixth when he threw wildly to third, allowing two runs to cross the plate.

Tigers Release Ferris Fain, Sign Joe Coleman
DETROIT (AP) — Ferris Fain, 33-year-old veteran of 16 major league seasons, was out of a job today and Joe Coleman, 32, one-time teammate of Fain on the Philadelphia Athletics had another chance in baseball.

The torrid — tempered Fain was given his unconditional release by the Detroit Tigers Wednesday and Coleman, aging right hander cut loose by Baltimore last Friday, was signed immediately to fill his spot on the roster.

Tiger management gave Fain's gimpy knee, which has refused to mend, as the official reason for discharge. But behind the official reason was the report of a series of heated arguments between the fiery first sacker and other players and coaches.

The two-time American League batting champion mixed in a raw verbal battle with Earl Torgerson, his replacement at first base, while the Tigers were en route to Kansas City from Chicago by train. He also engaged in an argument with Coach Schoolboy Rowe and others during a bus trip from Cleveland to Detroit Monday night.

It was learned that Manager Bucky Harris and General Manager Muddy Ruel decided then to release Fain soon thereafter.

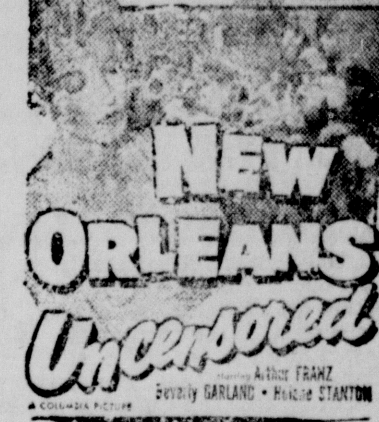

However Fain denied reports of dissension. Harris also refused to comment on them, and said only that he wished Fain "luck."

The slow-mending veteran infielder admitted he hadn't been able to help the Tigers much this season. "I haven't been much good to them, I guess," he said. "But after all, I'm not the first player to be released from a big league team. It happens to everybody sooner or later."

Giles Fines Walker, Tebbetts, Places Managers on Probation

CINCINNATI (AP)—Managers Harry Walker and Birdie Tebbetts, each short $100 for fighting with one another, were on probation today, aware that the next playing field incident may bring them a suspension instead of a fine.

President Warren Giles of the National League, after declaring their first fight in the Cardinals-Redlegs game of Tuesday night "unprecedented," let them off with the punishment, considered light compared with the $100 fine and five-day suspension meted out last summer to Cardinal Manager Eddie Stanky in a similar incident.

Tebbetts, the Cincinnati manager, admitted he threw the first punch at Walker in an argument over delaying tactics by the Cardinal field leader.

"That was unprecedented," Giles declared after witnessing the brawl. "I never before heard of two major league managers starting a fight between their teams by being the first to exchange blows."

Giles in imposing the fines said "scuffles between players under tension in a close game do not normally require action by the league office, but when managers are involved it is a different situation."

"Managers have an obligation to preserve or restore order and not by their own actions to incite disorder."

The league boss also fined catcher Bill Sarni of the Cardinals $25 for failing to heed Umpire Jocko Conlon's orders to return to his position and resume play.

Fleck in 12th Place Among Golf Money Winners

CHICAGO (AP) — Jack Fleck's National Open victory put him in the 25 top money winners in professional golf for the first time in his career, but his total earnings of $8,752.38 this year left him only 12th in the lineup announced today.

Mike Souchak, Grossinger, N. Y., continued to lead the field with $17,948.74 while Cary Middlecoff, Memphis, Tenn., who has won four tournaments this season, more than any other competitor, held second with $16,943.93.

Chandler Harper, Portsmouth, Va., took over first place in the chase for the Vardon Trophy, awarded to the player with the lowest average score per round, with a mark of 70.00.

There was no change in the top five in Ryder Cup points as Middlecoff increased his total to 714 31-60 for a stronger hold on the lead.

NO KICK—Duke Snider didn't give Wayne Terwilliger a kick in the pants when Roy Campanella hit into a double play at Ebbets Field. It just appears that way. Actually, the Giants' second baseman is getting the ball off to first baseman Gail Harris while hurdling the Dodgers' slugger who is attempting to break up the double killing.

Nine of 10 Top Winners In 500 Race, Entered In Du Quoin Program

DU QUOIN, Ill. (AP) — Nine of the 10 top winners of the 500-mile Memorial Day auto race have entered the three-day racing program at Du Quoin State Fair.

The winner of the Indianapolis classic, Bob Sweikert of Speedway City, Ind., heads the Labor Day weekend races entries. Other top drivers entered include Tony Bettenhausen, Jimmy Davies, Walt Faulkner, Andy Linden, Al Herman, Ray O'Connor and Johnny Thomson.

The Du Quoin fair program includes a 100-mile stock car race Sept. 3, a big car sprint program Sept. 4 and the 100-mile Ted Horn Memorial Race for big cars on Labor Day.

A very handsome soup: hot Lima bean chowder topped with crumbled bacon and snips of green onion. With the addition of hot garlic French bread and a rich dessert, it could make a meal.

The Wildcats scored four times in a seventh inning rally, but were finally topped by the Jukes.

The Jukes scored five times in the first, twice in the second, once in the fourth and sixth and twice in the seventh. The Wildcats scored their other two tallies in the fourth.

L. Henshaw, Oglesby, Pickford, Patton and White had one safety each for the losers' only five hits.

Rauh, Pickford and Moore led the Jukes at the plate with two hits each, while Biggs and Maynard had a single each to round out the winners' eight-hit attack.

Undeclared Pankey's scored 14 runs in the fourth to come back and win from the Cubs, 18-14. Hunt, the winning pitcher, gave up 14 runs on only two hits, while collecting four base blows himself.

The Cubs scored three runs in the first, five in the second, two in the third and four in the fourth. Pankey's made their other runs with one in the second and three in the third.

Wunderlich, Smith and Mazeros had three hits, Potter had two and Boone had one for the remainder of the winners' hits.

Gibbons was the losing pitcher. As both teams slated to play at the town park failed to show up a practice game was played which ended in a 6-6 tie.

Death Has 3 Lives

by Brett Halliday

Copyright 1955 by Brett Halliday

THE STORY: Unwittingly Private Detective Mike Shayne helped a murder suspect, Jack Bristow, escape arrest. Later Tim Rourke, a news reporter friend of Shayne's, finds Bristow's body under the bed in the apartment of Lucy Hamilton, Shayne's secretary, who helped Bristow hide from the police.

XIV

Shayne let Timothy Rourke precede him into the sitting room of his hotel apartment in downtown Miami.

Shayne went past him to a wall cabinet and took down a bottle of bourbon and one of cognac. He set a six-ounce wine glass beside the cognac on the table, went into the kitchen and returned with two glasses of ice water and a tall glass filled with ice cubes. The reporter splashed whiskey on top of ice cubes, carefully added a minute portion of water.

Rourke grinned at him lazily and said, "One of the most unwholesome wakes I ever attended. Which one of tonight's stiffies are we drinking to?"

"Both."

"You're the detective. Start detecting."

Shayne swore mildly and took another sip of cognac. "You were with Gentry in the dead girl's room. Give me the whole picture."

"There wasn't much. Seems this girl who called herself Trixie and was registered as Gladys Smith from New Orleans, moved into the room a few weeks ago. Way we got it, Trixie never seemed to have any dates. Stayed in most of the time, away from the other girls. None of them ever actually saw his face, but a couple of times saw a man going in or out, whom they thought had come or was going to her room. There were some men's clothes in the bureau, and an extra suit in the closet, so that seems to be that."

"What about tonight?"

"A little before 9 a girl across the hall had two male friends drop in, and she went across to see if Trixie would like to join them. She knocked on the door and got no answer but saw light inside and opened the door. Trixie lay on the floor, fully dressed, and strangled. By a man's hands, the doc said. She'd also been slapped around some, two of her fingers broken, and the room had been rather thoroughly searched. That's everything except the slip of paper on the floor beneath her body with Lucy's address on it."

His telephone rang as he spoke, and Timothy Rourke reached out lazily to lift it and say, "Hello."

He said, "Right here," and held it out to Shayne.

The redhead took the phone and said, "Shayne speaking."

A man's voice answered him. A voice he did not recognize. It had a harsh quality, with the slurred intonation of a southerner.

"Was that your reporter friend with you?"

Shayne said, "Yes."

"You want to talk important business in front of him?"

"What sort of business?"

"Important to you. About the run-around you gave the cops tonight."

Shayne said, "I never have kept any secrets from Tim Rourke. Keep talking."

"Okay. And you listen, Shamus. You're caught in a wringer right now. Or your secretary is. Did she use the knife on Bristow, or did you do that job?"

"You haven't told me who you are."

"That's right. I haven't. Can't you maybe guess, Shayne?"

Shayne said, "I don't like guessing games. Let's get together and talk this whole thing over."

"Oh, no, we don't. And don't bother tracing this call either. I'm at a roadside pay station miles away from anywhere and I'll be gone from here before you could do any good."

"What's your angle?"

"The dough, chum. The moola. The cash you lifted off Jack Bristow after cutting his throat so neat."

"I don't know what you're talking about."

"Don't give me that. I know he had it on him when he went to your girl's place. I know it wasn't on him when you dumped him in the street awhile ago. It's simple like that. I want it, the voice went on unemotionally. "You want I should ring up your pal the Chief and tell him just the kind of games you played tonight?"

"Go ahead," growled Shayne, putting a note of disgust in his voice. "What do you think you can prove?"

"Plenty, chum. Plenty. Listen to me so you'll know just where you stand on this deal. I've got the girl too, see?"

"What girl?" Shayne's voice was suddenly harsh and there were deep trenches in his cheeks.

"Mrs. Allerdice. That's who. The little number you've been playing house with tonight. She's crazy to get to the cops after I told her you bumped Hugh off too. How's

Social Security Benefits Paid in County Total More Than Million Dollars Yearly

Of the $101,448 in monthly social security benefits being paid in Saline county at the end of 1954, $17,103 went to mothers and children, according to E. Bishop Hill, Social Security Administration district manager in Harrisburg.

Mr. Hill pointed out that payments to mothers and children have special significance to the community as a whole because they help families to stay together after the death of the breadwinner.

In the nation as a whole, 271,536 mothers and 1,160,770 children were receiving social security insurance payments at the end of 1954. Total payments in 1954 were $133 million to mothers and $451 million to children. In the Harrisburg district, which serves 14 southern Illinois counties, 16,339 persons were receiving monthly payments in the monthly amount of $65,002.

One reason for the increase was the passage last September of the 1954 Amendments to the Social Security Act. These amendments increased all benefit payments and made it possible for the first time for survivors of some workers who died after 1939 and before 1950 to qualify for payments.

Beginning in September 1954 the amendments permit the "dropping out" of up to 5 years of lowest earnings in figuring the worker's average monthly wage. This has the effect of increasing the average earnings, from which the monthly payments are figured.

Other improvements in the law made by the 1954 amendments went into effect in 1955, and therefore are not reflected in the benefit figures for the end of 1954. Among these were the bringing of many more employees and self-employed people under the law and the beginning of the "disability freeze," which protects future benefit rights of former workers who have become totally disabled.

Mr. Hill pointed out that nine out of ten mothers and children are now protected by old age and survivors insurance in case of the death of the family breadwinner and that in the entire country about half of the children whose fathers have died now receive benefit payments.

In Saline county at the end of the year, 415 aged wives and husbands were receiving $11,834 per month as dependents of retired workers, and 176 aged widows and parents received $7,509 as surviving dependents of deceased workers.

The above figures do not include lump-sum death payments, according to Mr. Hill.

The word "meteor" is from the Greek, meaning "anything in the air." Meteorology, hence, is a study of the weather.

AROUND SPRINGFIELD

By DON E. CHAMBERLAIN

Rep. Paul Powell Hasn't Said 'No' To Draft for Senate Nomination

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (Special to Daily Register) — State Rep. Paul Powell, Vienna, hasn't quite tossed his sombrero into the ring for the Democratic nomination for U. S. Senate but he has given indications he might accept a "draft". He told a group of 70 Illinois House colleagues when they presented him with a petition urging he run "I am not a candidate" but he didn't say "no."

Powell who right along has shown a shyness toward running for U. S. Senator saying "my first obligation is to my district which has sent me to the General Assembly for 11 consecutive terms" says he hasn't turned his colleagues down. He insists he has not been a candidate "but you can't disregard a thing like this easily" referring to the petition asking him to make the race.

Equality Girl Stars In Summer Theatre At Terre Haute, Ind.

Miss Nancy Yost

The White Barn Professional Summer Theatre at Terre Haute, Ind., which is sponsored by the Indiana Academy of Dramatic Art is playing to large audiences.

Last week Miss Nancy Yost, of Equality, played the lead in "The Corn is Green," a Broadway production in which Miss Ethel Barrymore played the lead and in which she toured the country.

This week Miss Yost will play a double role as Mrs. Wagstaff and the Countess DeLage in the Claire Booth Luce's play "The Women."

During the rest of the summer theatre season Nancy will have supporting roles in "Camino Real," "Light Up the Sky," "The Heiress" and "Dark of the Moon."

Miss Yost received her Bachelor of Science degree at Southern Illinois university in 1934, majoring in speech, and has had one year of graduate work before entering the professional theatre.

He said "I'll think it over awhile," indicating that he planned to make a survey, particularly in Cook county where Democratic candidates for state office must run on big pluralities to offset the customary heavy vote for Republican candidates in downstate. Prospects are that if Powell were to get some kind of a favorable nod from Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley he might decide to run.

Powell was a much-humbled man and was a bit flushed with embarrassment when his colleagues descended on him during a House recess last week to present the petition. Usually a man talks easily on almost any occasion he was without words, then said "this is a great honor." Among signatures on the petition was that of Rep. James J. Ryan, Chicago, minority leader.

It was the second time last month that Powell was given a tribute. Earlier in June the Illinois Legislative Correspondents Association had picked Powell as the "outstanding" member of the House. He won it once before, four years ago, but that was when he was the recognized House Democrat leader. In this session he was without portfolio.

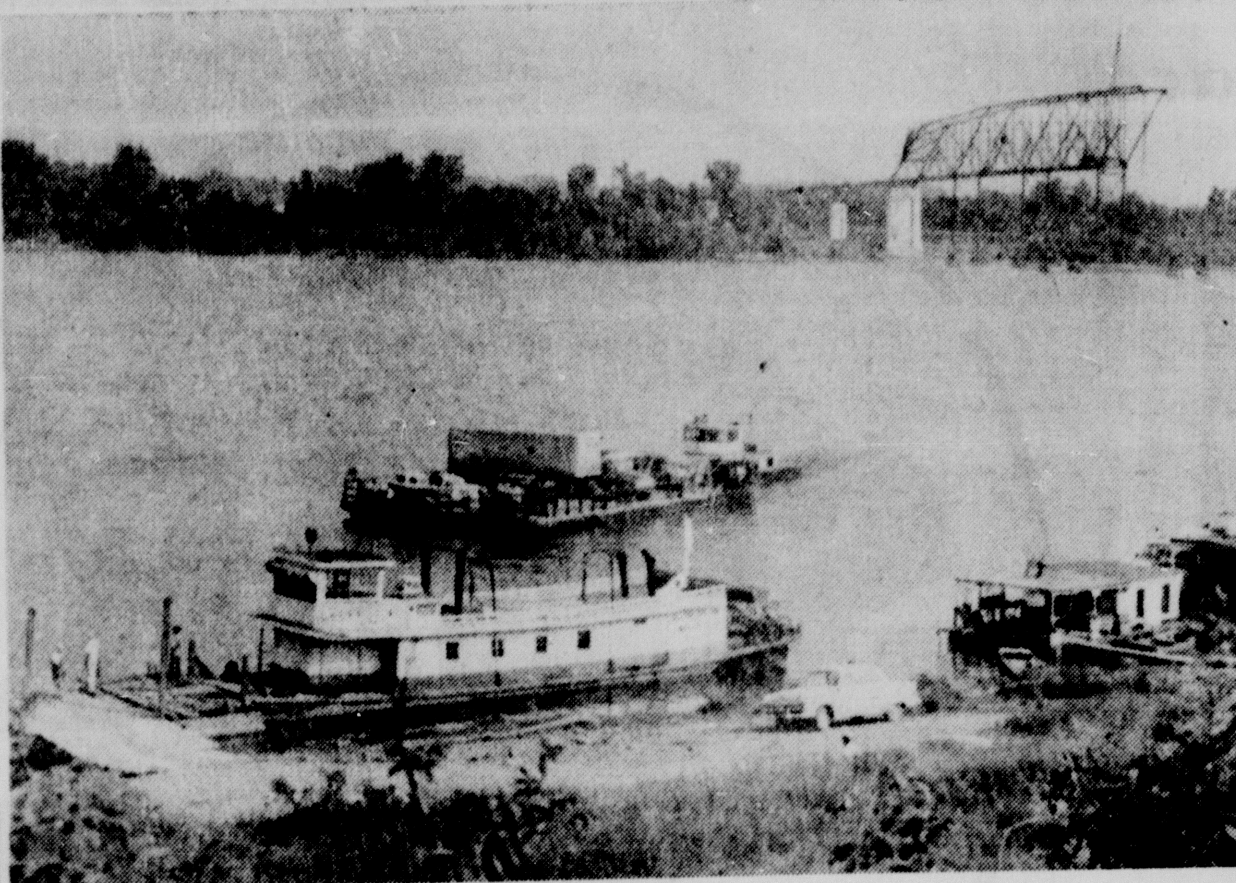

The petitions included signatures of both Chicagoans and downstaters. Among them were that of Allen T. Lucas, Springfield, a nephew of former U. S. Sen. Scott W. Lucas, Springfield; whip Clyde Choate, Anna; and John G. Ryan, veteran member and close to Chicago Democrat organization leader.

Others who signed it included Reps. Lloyd C. Harris, Granite City; George Saal, Pekin; C. R. Ratcliffe, Beardstown; Paul Ziegler, Carmi; H. D. Considine, Dixon; William Lyons, Gillespie; Carl Witmond, Brussels; Everett Fader, Macomb; Ed Shaefer, Nokomis; Richard Stengel, Rock Island; Francis J. Loughran, Joliet; Tobias Barry, Ladd; Frank Holten, East St. Louis; and John K. Morris, Chadwick.

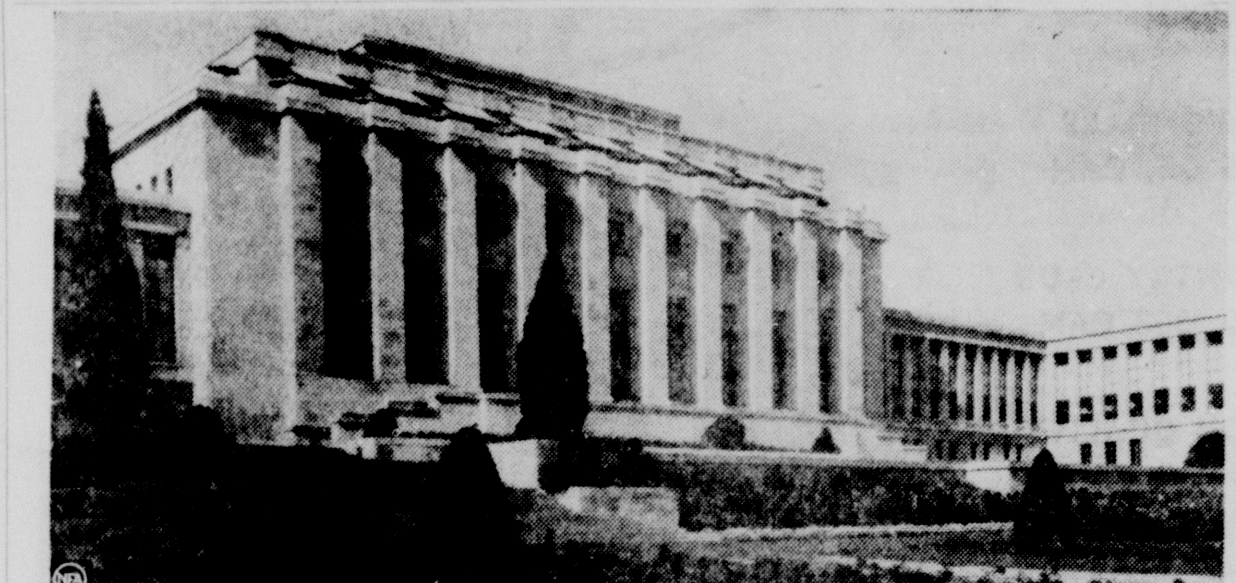

The petition asked Powell's permission to submit his name as a candidate for the Democratic senatorial nomination, saying "it will afford the (voters) an opportunity to select a (man) possessing the qualities of a statesman, the honesty and integrity of a gentleman coupled with a grim determination to represent the people."

State Sen. Mrs. Lottie Holman O'Neill, R., Downers Grove, is the first to get mention for delegate to the Republican National convention at San Francisco, Calif., a year hence. She has been endorsed by the Board of the DuPage County Federation of Republican Women Clubs. It isn't the first for Mrs. O'Neill. She was the first woman elected to the state legislature (1922).

Recoverable coal reserves in the State of Indiana, usually thought of as a corn and hog state, are 17,600,000,000 tons, enough to permit mining of 17,000,000 tons a year for the next 1,113 years.

CROSSING THE OHIO RIVER AT SHAWNEETOWN will probably be a much faster process when the new bridge is completed, but will lose much of the "color" provided by the ferry boat transportation. Work on the bridge is progressing satisfactorily, with approximately a half-span of the bridge in place from the Kentucky side. Some steel beams have been placed on the Illinois side of the river and much machinery and equipment are busy in constructing the long approach to the bridge. The ferry boat, long a trade mark of river crossing at Shawneetown, is shown in above photo approaching the landing at Shawneetown with the partially completed bridge span on other side of the river in background. PALAIS DES NATIONS at Geneva which will be the scene of the Big Four "Summit" talks beginning July 18.

Ike's Geneva Food Allowance: $7 a Day

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
NEA Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON (NEA) — President Eisenhower will get $7 per day food allowance at the Big Four "summit" conference in Geneva in July.

He'll take mostly light, summer-weight suits, but at least one winter suit because it can get pretty chilly there even in the middle of summer. He'll take one full-dress tail coat, and at least one white and one dark tuxedo, with the necessary accessories.

And it goes without saying, he'll take golf clubs.

Ike won't have to worry about getting his shirts and socks washed because every hotel in Geneva has excellent overnight laundry service. But dry-cleaning is something else. Special arrangements are being made for that.

The Russian delegation will arrive loaded with their own vodka and caviar. They always bring their own specialties. But the merchants of Geneva have everything Ike and the U. S. delegation will need for official entertaining and their personal needs. There are just a few of the thousand-and-one administrative details for the historic meeting being worked out by the State Department's Office of International Conferences.

The OIC pays for the basic

costs of our part in the meeting which includes transportation for the staff people, rooms, food and the communications bill. A spokesman estimates that the total U. S. tab for the conference will be in the neighborhood of $250,000, depending on how long it lasts.

"Over 100 persons will go to Geneva for the U. S.," is what the State Department says officially. There are reports that as many as 500 officials might be sent.

Ike's food bill will obviously be more than $7 per day. That's just OIC's official allotment for all delegates. Anything above that will come out of his special White House expense fund.

One of OIC's toughest problems in arranging conferences is the matter of wives accompanying delegates. It is applying its traditional rule for the Geneva meeting. Wives of the top delegates are encouraged to go. It has been found that they perform a great number of important chores, from acting as hostesses to putting studs in shirts.

It's not known if Mrs. Eisenhower's health will permit her to make the trip or whether Mrs. Dulles will accompany the Secretary of State. But OIC officials hope so.

For the rest of the delegates, however, it's thumbs down on wives. Wives of underlings just clutter up conferences, they say.

Many of the details, such as what kind of official notes will be taken during sessions, what persons will be permitted in the conference room and what rooms of the League of Nations building will be used, will be settled several days before the meetings start.

OIC's work is actually a vital third of the complex planning for the meeting which also includes Secret Service security arrangements for the President and the paper work to back up the top-level discussions. Co-ordinator for the whole thing is State Department attorney Douglas MacArthur II, nephew of the famous general.

One of the major headaches of the meeting for MacArthur is not knowing exactly what the Russians will want to talk about. Subjects to be discussed determine what experts should be taken along and what files and records should be moved to Geneva.

Dulles' staff is already working overtime preparing such things as codifications of all treaties and international agreements which the U. S. has been party to for the past several years. The "summit" discussions will undoubtedly raise questions which must be quickly answered by referral to this source.

All important papers and documents bearing on U. S. relations in the Far East, for example, will be taken. Background information on Ike's atoms for peace proposals will have to go. But it's a difficult job to cull through voluminous files to determine just what is the most important information to take.

More than 10 foot lockers will be used to haul this batch of paper. It will probably be flown with Dulles in his plane.

In this category of preparation the Central Intelligence Agency helps. Up-to-the-minute evaluation on numerous situations are being prepared for Ike's guidance. All possible information on new key personalities who will attend from the other countries will be gathered. In such negotiations it's important to know if a man is in the habit of losing his temper, for instance. This type of information is especially valuable for the second-level meetings.

Probably the most confidential of all planning for Geneva is being done by the Secret Service. Agents will go over every detail of the room location in the hotel where he will stay, how his food is prepared, his transportation to and from the meeting place and who will likely attend the social functions.

"Real Beer Goodness" THAT FOLKS ARE PRAISING TODAY!

You know what you're looking for in beer, and we're sure you'll find it in today's G.B. All we ask is that you try one glass—but taste it critically, carefully. Let its crisp, clean-cut flavor roll around on your tongue. . . and discover the "real beer goodness" that more and more folks are praising every day!

Brewing that "real beer goodness" into G.B. just comes naturally with us. And today, even though our brewery is one of the world's most modern, G.B. is still brewed with the heart as well as the hands, still aged for months to give you the "real beer goodness" that makes people call G.B. the beer of beers today. Enjoy some soon. You'll like it, too!

Bring out the smiles
... Bring on the G.B.!

Retirement Not All It's Cracked Up to Be

DETROIT — Dr. Ferdinand Mauser, chairman of the department of marketing at Wayne University, said the widely held idea that people look forward to retirement so they can start taking things easy just isn't so. Mauser, who directed a recent study of persons over 65, said that of the 144 people interviewed 91 had to retire and 51 of those wanted to continue to work but could not because of company or union policy. Mauser said interviews indicated that persons over 65 have a strong need to retain identification thru work, if only on a parttime basis. Nearly half said they were interested in doing community and charity work even though it offered no salary, he said. There were "strong indications" that security extends far beyond financial aspects. "The chief worry in the over 65 group is isolation—the loss of feeling of belonging," he concluded.

Gags Grow Big Too Down Texas Way

GALVESTON, Tex. — Mrs. Orma M. Richmond's favorite gag is that she has married more men than any other woman in Texas. That total, she estimates, is between 3,500 and 4,000 since she became a justice of the peace on Jan. 1, 1943. A wire mesh tea strainer fastened to the end of a clothes washer drain hose keeps the lint from clogging drains. Remove the lint when the laundry is done.

Holy Land Tour

By Dr. Archie E. Brown

When I last wrote to you, we were in New York City. It was Monday morning, and we were just about to leave the Hotel Governor Clinton for the airport where we would embark for points outside the U. S. The day was to hold one great big surprise for me.

At our briefing session we were divided into two groups. Twenty-two were placed in one group and twenty-five in the other. The group of twenty-two was sent ahead to the Idlewild airport to leave New York at 11:00 a. m. Here was the mistake. They should have sent the group of twenty-five.

When the 11:00 a. m. plane left New York, it carried three empty seats. When the group of twenty-five arrived at the airport to leave at 2 p. m., there were only twenty-two seats available. Three people had to stay in New York. Guess who? Yep, that is right. Brown, Baldwin and Carleton remained. Seats on planes are all taken for months ahead. The shipyard strikes have caused people from all over the world to stand in line, begging for passage home. Two hundred and seventy people from Alabama and Mississippi had their passage to the Baptist World Alliance cancelled because of the shipyard strikes.

Quick Decision

So, there we were stranded in New York with our travel agent working behind the scenes frantically trying to get us to Athens, Greece.

About 5:55 p. m. he came running up to us and said we would have to make a quick decision. One of us could leave in five minutes for Paris, France and Athens, Greece. This flight would beat the tour party to Athens, and whoever went would be waiting for them to step off the plane there.

Paul Carleton does not see well, which meant that Jim Baldwin or I would have to stay behind with him. I looked at Jim, and Jim looked at me. I said, "Jim, get on that plane." He started to argue with me, and I put out my hand and shook hands with him saying: "I'll see you in Athens." Jim turned and left with the travel agent. It had all happened so fast that neither of us had time for deliberation.

The travel agent came back in about ten minutes. Paul and I were his two remaining problems! He very frankly told us that he was not sure that we would get to Europe. I breathed a prayer at that time: "Lord, if it can be your will, please make possible two plane passages to Athens, Greece." He did!

Extra Day in City

Soon, our agent was back again. Two people leaving the next day at 5:30 p. m. for Athens, Greece, had just cancelled out. Our agent had gotten us number one spot on the waiting list. We were in! However, we had another night and day to spend in New York City. Our travel agent paid all our expenses for this extra night and day.

Paul and I got on the bus and back to the city we went. It was about 3 p. m. when we checked into the Governor Clinton hotel again. The room clerk looked at me as if to say, "are you back again." After a bite to eat, a bath and a few TV programs, Paul and I were ready for another night's rest.

Tuesday morning, June 28, found us in New York City instead of Athens, Greece, with the rest of our party. We had almost a whole day before our plane was to leave, so, we decided to go out to Bedlow Island and see the Statue of Liberty.

After a hearty breakfast the victims were ready for new experiences. We decided to try the subway. As has been mentioned, Paul does not see well; so I guided him onto the subway train. Boy! what a ride. These trains run through tunnels underground, and they really do get up speed.

See Statue of Liberty

We got off the subway train on Ferry Island and walked across to the docks. Here we boarded the Circle A Ferry which took us across East River to Bedlow Island on which the Statue of Liberty stands. My! but that lady looks majestic, holding her torch of freedom high in the air.

It is ten stories up to the feet of the statue. The statue alone is twelve stories high. We rode an elevator up inside the base of the statue the ten stories. Then, we climbed up a very narrow, winding stair the other twelve stories inside the statue. From this vantage point we could see for miles across the river and the city of New York.

By the time we took the subway train back to our hotel and checked out, it was time to depart once more for Idlewild airport. This we did, and we ate our lunch out at the airport. We checked our suitcases through to Athens, Greece. Our TWA flight was number 904. We boarded the plane at 5:30 p. m., and at 5:50 p. m., we were in the air and on our way.

Our first stop was Ganders, Newfoundland, Canada. Newfoundland is a province of Canada, and Ganders is her capitol. This flight took us four hours and fifteen minutes. We were on the ground about forty-five minutes in Ganders while our plane was being refueled.

Stop in Paris, Zurich. I noticed that the clock on the airport wall indicated that we had lost another two hours. New York time was 10:10 p. m., Tuesday; and, Ganders time was 12:10 a. m., Wednesday.

Our next stop was Paris, France, eight and one-half hours later. We were due in Paris at 1:45 p. m., and we landed exactly on time. Since this was not our destination, we had to stay in one room until the plane was ready to depart. We were on the ground about one hour, because the ground crew had to change one of our wheels. It cost twenty-five cents for a postcard and an air-mail stamp to send back home.

Zurich, Switzerland is our next stop. We are now about 45 minutes out of Paris. We have just finished a very fine lunch on the plane. Our altitude is about 18,000 feet, and our speed about 400 miles per hour. We should be in Zurich at 3:20 p. m. It is just a one hour and thirty minute flight from Paris to Zurich.

We will stop in both Zurich and Paris, with our tour party on the way back for two or three days.

We are now on the ground at Zurich, Switzerland. We landed on time and are about to take off on time. The Zurich airport is one of the nicest in the world. Some will remember seeing it in "Cinema Holiday."

Rome Next Stop

Rome, Italy will be our next stop. We are due there at 6:10 p. m. I might say that Paul and I are the only two Americans on board the plane now. The other passengers are Italian and Greek. Even the crew members are all—what? They are not foreigners. Paul and I are the foreigners now. We were cautioned about that before we left New York. Don't worry, I will not forget. How could I?

5:40 p. m. I can look out my cabin window and see directly below me the Island of Elba where Napoleon was exiled. Now, I can also see the Island of Corsica, where Napoleon was born. We are coming in close to Rome, Italy. The plane motors are slowing as we are losing altitude.

We made it on time into Rome. Here again we saw one of the best airports in the world. It was beautiful to behold. Paul and I walked through the airport, bought a postcard, and mailed it back to our wives.

Right at this moment we have been in the air about an hour. We are due in Athens, Greece at 10:50 p. m. The stewardess is getting ready to serve our dinner now. We are on a TWA plane, and they certainly have served delicious food all the way. The crew members also do everything that they can to be of assistance.

Make it to Athens

Dinner is over and Paul and I have both had a short nap. The time is 10:30 p. m. It is difficult for me to imagine that I am aboard a plane.

The moon is shining brightly tonight, and the stars are out. As I awoke just now, I thought to myself, Down below is Greece. Soon I shall be in Athens. The same moon that shone on Socrates, Plato, Aristotle and the Apostle Paul, as they walked in Athens, is shining down on me. This great old city holds many enchantments. Tomorrow I shall see some of her beauty.

Right now I am thinking of getting through customs and finding the rest of our Illinois party. I want to mail this back home tonight; so if I meet my party, I shall write no more tonight. Installment No. 3 will be next.

We made it! Dr. Taylor and Jim Baldwin were waiting for us at the airport here in Athens.
